

Your image file will reproduce poorly, and may not be usable, if the appropriate size and file resolution is not supplied. It is best to provide a full size image with an output resolution of 300dpi. Lower resolutions (with a file size of 1MB or smaller) will result in reduced image quality. Please use the diagrams below as a guideline for the composition of the head shot you provide.

